5. AWARD CRITERIA

The prizes will be awarded based on the biggest amounts of “likes” on the official EUGLOH Facebook and Instagram channels.

If a participant sees several of its pictures in the 10 best ones, she/he will only get one reward.

6. DOCUMENTS

The mandatory supporting documents are set out in the application form.

Participants may be asked at a later stage for further documents (for legal entity validation, bank account validation, ethics review, declaration of honour on exclusion grounds, etc).

7. PROCEDURE

EUGLOH communication team will repost on EUGLOH official channels each picture mentioning the following hashtags #EUGLOH #photocontest1 #covid19 of participants following the EUGLOH official page. Each picture will be attributed a specific number.

On July 1st 2020 09:00 am (CEST time), numbers of likes of each picture the official EUGLOH Facebook and Instagram channels accepted in the contest will be counted. Winners will be classified by the amount of “likes”. The larger being the first.

Winners will be announced on EUGLOH official channels on July 8th, 2020, once all eligibility criteria have been cleared.

8. OTHER CONDITIONS

8.1 Payment arrangements

Université Paris-Saclay (UPSaclay) will reward the selected winners with the prizes through the EUGLOH WP5 campus life budget, provided all the requested documents have been submitted.

8.2 Publicity — Promoting the prize — Visibility of EU funding

8.2.1 Publicity by the winner(s)

Both finalist(s) and the winner(s) must promote the prize and its results, by providing targeted information to multiple audiences (including the media and the public) in a strategic and effective manner, always referring to one of EUGLOH official channels or website.

8.2.2 Publicity by EUGLOH

EUGLOH may use, for its communication and publicising activities, information relating to the action, documents notably summaries for publication as well as any other material, such as pictures or audio-visual material that it receives from the participants (including in electronic form).

EUGLOH will publish the name of the winner(s), their origin, the amount of the prize and its nature and purpose — unless they have requested to waive this publication (because disclosure risks threatening its security and safety or harm its commercial interest).

Photos and videos taken by EUGLOH either in preparation of the award ceremony or during the award ceremony are the sole property of EUGLOH.

8.3 Processing of personal data

8.3.1 Processing of personal data by EUGLOH

Any personal data will be processed by EUGLOH in respect to the GDPR.

All participants consent that EUGLOH publishes the following information:

- name
- University of origin
- prize type

in whatever form and medium.

8.3.2 Processing of personal data by the participants

The participants must process personal data in compliance with applicable EU and national law on data protection (including authorisations or notification requirements, if any).

8.4 Ethics

The activities must be carried out in compliance with:

- (a) ethical principles and
- (b) applicable international, EU and national law.

8.5 Conflict of interests

The participants must take all measures to prevent any situation where the impartial and objective award of the prize is compromised for reasons involving economic interest, political or national affinity, family or emotional ties or any other shared interest ('conflict of interests').

They must inform EUGLOH without delay of any situation constituting or likely to lead to a conflict of interests and immediately take all the necessary steps to rectify this situation.

8.6 Liability for damages

EUGLOH cannot be held liable for any damage caused to the participants or to third parties as a consequence of the prize, including for gross negligence.

EUGLOH cannot be held liable for any damage caused by any of the participants in the context of the prize.

8.7 Checks, audits and investigation

EUGLOH photo contest prizes being funded by the European Commission, the Agency or the Commission, the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) and the European Court of Auditors may carry out checks, audits and investigations in relation to the prize.

8.8 Withdrawal of the prize — Recovery of undue amounts

EUGLOH may withdraw the prize after its award and recover all payments made, if it finds out that:

- (a) false information, fraud or corruption was used to obtain it
- (b) a winner was not eligible or should have been excluded
- (c) a winner is in serious breach of its obligations under these Rules of Contest.

8.9 Administrative sanctions

If a participant has committed irregularities or fraud or has made false declarations, the European Commission may also:

- (d) exclude the participant from all future contracts, grants and contests financed from the EU or Euratom budget for a maximum of five years (or 10 years in case of repetition) and/or

8.10 Cancellation of the contest

EUGLOH may cancel the contest or decide not to award the prize — without any obligation to compensate participants —, if:

- (e) no applications are received
- (f) the winner is not eligible or must be excluded or
- (g) the objective of the contest have already been achieved.

8.11 Complaints

Complaints against decisions negatively affecting the rights of a participant or winner can be brought before the General Court — or, on appeal, the Court of Justice of the European Union — under Article 263 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU (TFEU).
