

Activity “Capacity Building in Intrapreneurship”

1st - 15th of September 2023

Meet the Professors

Miguel Sousa, PhD (msousa@fep.pt)
Faculty of Economics of the University of Porto (FEP)

Miguel Sousa holds a Bachelor degree in Management, a Master in Finance from the School of Economics and Management (FEP, University of Porto) and a PhD degree in Financial Economics from the Saïd Business School (University of Oxford). He teaches at FEP since 1996 and is member of the Executive Council and the Scientific Council. He is currently Assistant Professor at FEP and Guest Professor at Porto Business School, Kozminski University and University of Luxembourg. He is the WP 4 EUGLOHRIA Academic Leader. He was previously member of the PBS General and Supervisory Board and the Magellan MBA Director and also a member of the Bial Portela Supervisory Board. He has prior experience as corporate controller in a Portuguese listed company and as CFO in a SME from the cork sector. He is author of several academic papers on SPACs, Initial Public Offerings and Private Equity, presented in several finance conferences (American Finance Association, European Finance Association, Financial Management Association and European Financial Management Association) and published in top finance journals (Journal of Applied Finance, International Journal of Finance and Economics, and Journal of Banking and Finance).

Pedro Pinheiro, MSc (ppinheiro@fep.up.pt)
Faculty of Economics of the University of Porto (FEP)

Graduated in Management from the School of Economics and Management (FEP, University of Porto) in 1994, including one year spent at the University of Wales, Swansea in 1993, with a scholarship from the Erasmus Program. He completed, with distinction, a Master’s Degree (in Finance at London Business School 1998). He is a partner at Monsanto Capital, Oaklins member firm in Portugal, Former CEO of Change Partners, where he served on the board of several of its portfolio companies. Pedro joined Change Partners in 2001 from Banco Português de Investimento, where he was Associate Director for Private Equity. He has had brief stints as an entrepreneur having cofounded a few companies in the retail sector. He currently teaches at FEP U.Porto and PBS. His academic interests are alternative assets, fintech and capital markets.

Cofinanciado por: