CAREER EVENINGS

Be prepared for the important interview! Attend the online, interactive events and get useful information about these topics:

Business as unusual – is NOT an option in HR

12th April, 2021; 6 p.m. (CEST)

Almost anything that can be automated will be – but HUMAN first. Building your knowledge about the Global HR trends of the Millennials. These are the keys to understand the Information Society in a near future.

Lecture of Zsolt Lukács, an economist, started his career in B2B trade, FMCG and fashion business. He is a passionate Executive Search Consultant with a solid knowledge of various business sectors within management positions from the past two decades.

How to start and build your career as a fresh graduate

13th April, 2021; 6 p.m. (CEST)

Building your skills and self-awareness is vital to starting your career journey. These are the keys to writing a strong CV, having smooth interviews and landing a great job. This may sound quite scary, but we're here to guide you through the process!

Lecture of Dóra Tengerdi, who started her career in Austria in logistics, and then realized that it wasn't for her. Since then, she has worked as a Recruitment Consultant at a headhunter agency and as an HR Business Partner at a software company, and learned a huge amount along the way when it comes to career development. Now she is building her own business as a career and job search consultant, a field that fits her perfectly.

Over the years, she's conducted around 500 interviews and have read thousands of CVs. Let her use her insights to help you make the right steps to find your dream job.
