

2 FEBRUARY 2024 • 9^{AM} - 4:30^{PM}

INTERDISCIPLINARY WORKSHOP
SUFFICIENCY STRATEGIES
& POST-GROWTH TRAJECTORIES

Rethinking our individual practices and collective organisation to remain within planetary boundaries

How to change our lifestyle to consume « less but better »?

How can business drive sufficiency? How to change our collective imaginaries?

©MSH PARIS-SACLAY

FACULTÉ JEAN MONNET
54 BD DESGRANGES
92330 SCEAUX
BÂT. G - SALLE G. VEDEL

MORE INFO & REGISTRATION:
<https://vu.fr/pSZBr>

Contact: reine.bou-fadel@universite-paris-saclay.fr

PROGRAMME

INTERDISCIPLINARY WORKSHOP

SUFFICIENCY STRATEGIES & POST-GROWTH TRAJECTORIES

2 FEBRUARY 2024 • 9AM - 4:30PM

8:30 - 9:00 Welcome at the faculty of Jean Monnet, Université Paris-Saclay (Sceaux)

9:00 - 9:15 Opening address from the organising committee members

9:15 - 10:45 Session 1. Transforming our consumption patterns towards sufficiency (Session Chair: Vincent Martinet, PSAE, INRAE)

9:15 - 9:45 The social challenges of the ecological transition, Ivaylo Petev (CREST, ENSAE)

9:45 - 10:15 Navigating rebound effects in the pursuit of 1.5°C lifestyle transitions,
Matthias Lehner (International Institute for Industrial Environmental Economics - IIIEE, Lund University)

10:15 - 10:45 Food sufficiency, an approach rooted in the ethics of Epicurus,
Liselotte Hedegaard (Department of Communication and Arts, Roskilde University)
& Valérie Hémar-Nicolas (RITM, Université Paris-Saclay)

10:45 - 11:15 Coffee break

11:15 - 12:15 Session 2. Changing our norms and rules (Session Chair: Lydiane Nabec, RITM, Université Paris-Saclay)

11:15 - 11:45 For a spirituality of sufficiency, Philippe Jacquinot (LITEM, Université d'Evry/Université Paris-Saclay),
Arnaud Pelissier-Tanon (PRISM-Sorbonne, Université Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne),
& Catherine Voynet-Fourboul (LARGEPA, Université Paris Panthéon Assas)

11:45 - 12:15 Charles Vautrot-Schwarz (IEDP, Observatoire du Green Deal, Université Paris-Saclay)

12:15 - 13:45 Lunch break

13:45 - 15:15 Session 3. Rethinking our collective organisation towards sufficiency (Session Chair: Natalia Zugravu-Soilita, SOURCE, Université Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines/ Université Paris-Saclay)

13:45 - 14:15 The climate debate in the media and the risks of polarization,
Michael Brüggemann (Universität Hamburg, The New Institute)

14:15 - 14:45 Research on sufficiency in business: current state of knowledge and further research needs,
Maïke Gossen (Technische Universität Berlin)
& Laura Niessen (Maastricht Sustainability Institute, Maastricht University)

14:45 - 15:15 Aspirations and realities of sufficiency-oriented business models in french fashion SMEs,
Oksana Mont & Maëlle Soulis (International Institute for Industrial Environmental Economics - IIIEE, Lund University)

15:15 - 16:00 Roundtable: How to shift our paradigm to « less but better »? What's next for research?

Moderator: Cédric Gossart (LITEM, Université d'Evry/ Université Paris-Saclay)

Mélissa Boudes (LITEM, Université d'Evry/Université Paris-Saclay)

Rémi Beulque (CGS-i3, UMR 9217, Mines Paris - PSL, ISC Paris)

16:00 - 16:30 Closing address from the organising committee members

The workshop has been organised by THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS & MANAGEMENT, with the support of

Organising committee: Cédric Gossart (LITEM, Université d'Evry/Université Paris-Saclay), Vincent Martinet (PSAE, INRAE), Valérie Nicolas-Hémar (RITM, Université Paris-Saclay)

We warmly thank Reine Bou Fadel (Faculty of Jean Monnet, Université Paris-Saclay) for her administrative support.